SECTION 6 WHEELCHAIR ASSISTANCE CONTINUED

As we do not have volunteers to assist people with disabilities, you will need to have a companion with you who is able to assist you throughout the pilgrimage. However, we will consider each case on its own merit. To assist us please answer the following questions which will help us to evaluate whether we can provide you with the necessary level of support you will need during your Pilgrimage. Please tick the appropriate boxes for each question below:

- | | | | |

IMPORTANT NOTICE: If you require a wheelchair abroad during the pilgrimage, you will need to arrange this from the UK directly as we cannot arrange wheelchairs abroad

SECTION 7 TRAVEL INSURANCE INFORMATION

It is of utmost importance to have adequate travel insurance cover for your pilgrimage. Curtailment of travel depending on when you cancel, can cost up to the total cost of your pilgrimage. Medical and repatriation costs are prohibitive and can extend to upwards of tens of thousands of Sterling Pounds. It is imperative that you make sure that you and all your travel companions booking with you have adequate and valid travel insurance for the duration of your pilgrimage. Special Pilgrimages cannot be held legally, financially or morally responsible if a situation arises when you or any of your companions find yourselves in a situation without adequate travel insurance cover. You must read your travel insurance policy very carefully and pay particular attention to exclusions. You must always declare pre-existing medical condition to your insurer and make sure that your policy covers you for these while you are abroad.

This is the statement of Data Protection Compliance adopted by Special Pilgrimages Ltd.

Special Pilgrimages needs to collect and use certain types of information about our customers with whom it deals in order to operate. This includes, employees, airlines, hotels, suppliers, and others with whom it is necessary to communicate with in order to operate your pilgrimage. In addition, it may occasionally be required by law to collect and use certain types of information of this kind to comply with the requirements of government departments for business data, for example. This personal information must be dealt with properly, however it is collected, recorded and used - whether on paper, in a computer, or recorded on other material.

We regard the lawful and correct treatment of personal information by Special Pilgrimages as very important to successful operations, and to maintaining confidence between those with whom we deal and ourselves. We ensure that our organisation treats personal information lawfully and is stored correctly and securely.

To this end we fully endorse and adhere to the Principles of Data Protection, as enumerated in the Data Protection Act 1998 and the GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation).
